To Help Appellant Afford Travel

I have tried for many years to raise money to support my legal effort. My funds are severely constrained. I have decided to focus my attention on preparing for upcoming hearings at the U.S. Court of Appeals. Since the Defendants have repeatedly failed to respond to my efforts to discuss a settlement, my only road to justice is in the Federal Courts. For the record, after this order is over my intention is to share my story –at no cost– by offering it online in a PDF file. My goal is to help others avoid monumental damages and the protracted battle against financial fraud that I have been forced to endure.

Since travel to Philadelphia will be difficult, I ask that the hearing is scheduled to that I can take a train from Newark, travel to the Court, and return the same day.

Respectfully submitted,

Veronica A. Williams
